1. Today we would like you to write two days of your own diary.
2. Choose any two days from the 23rd March when you have been at home
3. First look at the WAGOLL on the next slide of a diary entry from 23rd March
4. Remind yourself of the features included in this
5. The following slide has a diary checklist for you
6. When you have finished download the success criteria and see how many features you have included.

Wagoll

Monday 23rd March

Dear Diary,

What unusual times we're now living in! Today, I admit to feeling rather overwhelmed by the changes to my daily life, but hopefully, I'll adapt. No more meeting up with friends when I want to or trips to explore Ashted Common with my grandparents.

However, looking back on today, there were many bonuses. As a family, we were able to spend time together rather than dashing off to school and then on to clubs. The highlight has to be when we all did the Joe Wicks workout together and Dad landed up in a heap of exhaustion afterwards. That was funny! It's great having Mum and Dad around and not having to go out to work; I did have to remember to be quiet though when they're on the phone to work.

After I had completed my home learning, I decided to set myself the challenge of using all my pieces of lego to build an imaginary planet. How long will that take me? Hopefully our isolation will last long enough for me to finish it. Now I'm looking forward to tomorrow and not worrying about it.
